

In the midst of many grave dangers...

Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 3, 2019

Jeremiah 1: 4-10 Psalm 71: 12-21 Luke 4: 21-32

God's plan for every human being

Jeremiah 1: 5 Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.

God's promise of his presence

Jeremiah 1: 8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.

God's provision for the call

Jeremiah 1: 9 Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth. And the Lord said to me, Behold, I have put my words in your mouth.

God's word about his word

Jeremiah 1: 10 See, I have set you this day over nations and over kingdoms to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.

For your further consideration

- What is God saying about Himself ?
- What is He saying about you?
- What is He saying TO you?

Prayer for the Day

O God, you know that we are set in the midst of many grave dangers, and because of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: Grant that your strength and protection may support us in all dangers and carry us through every temptation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
